

Tama, Iowa – June 10, 2007

The first show of the 2007 Iowa Ranch Horse Association show season was held at the Ridge Riders Saddle Club just outside of Tama/Toledo, Iowa. Kim, Connie and Gigi Fontinel all worked very hard to put on another great show. There were some new faces, for who we are always thankful. This was the first time for the new Novice Division, and we had one entry in that division. We hope to see more in the next show. Great job Kandy Weigel! The day before the IRHA show the Ridge Riders Saddle Club hosted an AQHA Versatility show. Both shows were a success and we thank the Fontinels for all their hard work! Cattle were supplied by Steve Best from Brayton and the judge for the IRHA show was Jerry Sharer. There were 108 class entries and 22 exhibitors.
